

Submission of Consultancy Proposal

NETZ Partnership for Development and Justice (NETZ), a non-profit organization registered in Germany and Bangladesh, has been working in Bangladesh since 1989 to establish human dignity and to fight against poverty with a bottom-up, self-help approach. Across its programmes, NETZ works together with local partner NGOs and focuses its support on income and food security for extremely poor people, primary education for children of extreme poor families and promotion of human rights in Bangladesh.

Under its Livelihood programme, NETZ, together with its partners, currently continues its effort to fight extreme poverty and hunger through a number of projects. NETZ aims at contributing to overcome extreme poverty (SDG 1), promote Zero Hunger (SDG 2) and to reduce the vulnerability to the adverse consequence of climate change (SDG 13) in the poverty stricken and climate risk areas in the region. On the basis of the experiences of NETZ and its partner organizations in the Livelihood Program, the project “Strengthening the Resilience of the Poorest Population to the Impacts of Climate Change in Bangladesh (PORIBESH) and “Strengthening the Resilience and Adaptive Capacity of Vulnerable Groups and Empowering Civil Society in the Context of Climate Change in Bangladesh (SRIJAN)” Project supporting 5200 marginalized households (HHs) in the districts Satkhira, Khulna and Bagerhat in Bangladesh. The implementing partners of these projects in the south-west coastal regions are Agrogoti Songstha, BARCIK and Jagaroni Chakra foundation.

As a part of the project, a video documentary is to be produced to document the impact of climate risks on vulnerable communities and local initiatives to overcome the situations. The video documentation will create aware people about not only of the evolving risk but of their economic, social and cultural rights (ESC) in the context of climate change.

To document the above-mentioned initiatives of project participants, a consultant will be hired to produce a short video documentary.
